

Have your say

The Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 will create new rights to walk on 'access land' - generally mountain, moor, heath, down and registered common land. The Countryside Agency is producing maps which show where this land is.

The consultation period on the draft map of Eastern England - which includes Essex, Suffolk, Norfolk, Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire, Hertfordshire, Nottinghamshire, Rutland, Lincolnshire, parts of Yorkshire and some of the outer boroughs of north London - was due to close at midnight on December 2nd.

Unfortunately, due to a technical problem with the website we have not received any comments that people have submitted 'on-line' since 30 October. This means that we have not received 'on-line' comments regarding the draft map of Eastern England that were submitted after this date.

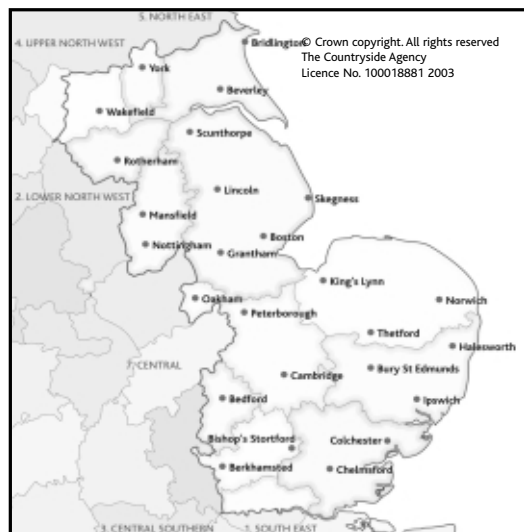

We are very keen to ensure that we do not lose the information that people have provided through this medium and so we are asking people to resend their comment. We appreciate that it is inconvenient for people to have to do something twice and in order to allow plenty of time for this we will continue to accept resubmitted comments on the draft map for Eastern England until Midnight on the 13th January.

Please send your comments by email: accessmapping@bv.com

or fax: 01737 772767

or by post: Access Mapping Team, Countryside Agency, PO Box 475, Redhill RH1 1WR.

Please note that comments sent in via post, fax or email have not been affected by this problem.

You can still see the maps:

- at selected Countryside Agency regional offices (by appointment via our helpline)
- at selected public libraries and local authorities
- on our website
- local maps have been sent to parish councils (To purchase copies of your local map sheet call 0870 122 1242.)
